

Yf my complaintes

(John Dowland)

Yf my com - plaintes could pas - sions to move, or make love My pas - sions were e - nough to prove that my dis - see where - in I suf - fer wronge. O love I live and paires had gov - ern'd mee too long. Thy woundes doe fresh - lie die in thee, thy greife in my deepe sighes still bleed in mee, my heart for thy un - kind - ness speakes. Yet thou do'st hope when I dis - paire, breaks. Thou saist thou canst my harmes re - paire, and

yet